

About Us

Clients consistently tell us that McGlinchey lawyers find ways to deliver greater value. It's just one of the reasons that we are a firm of choice for companies in both established and emerging industries. We give you more.

McGlinchey Stafford is a premier mid-sized business law firm that creatively delivers best-in-class, full-service, scalable solutions for clients nationwide by leveraging bold innovation, diverse talent, and leading-edge technology across its growing networked platform.

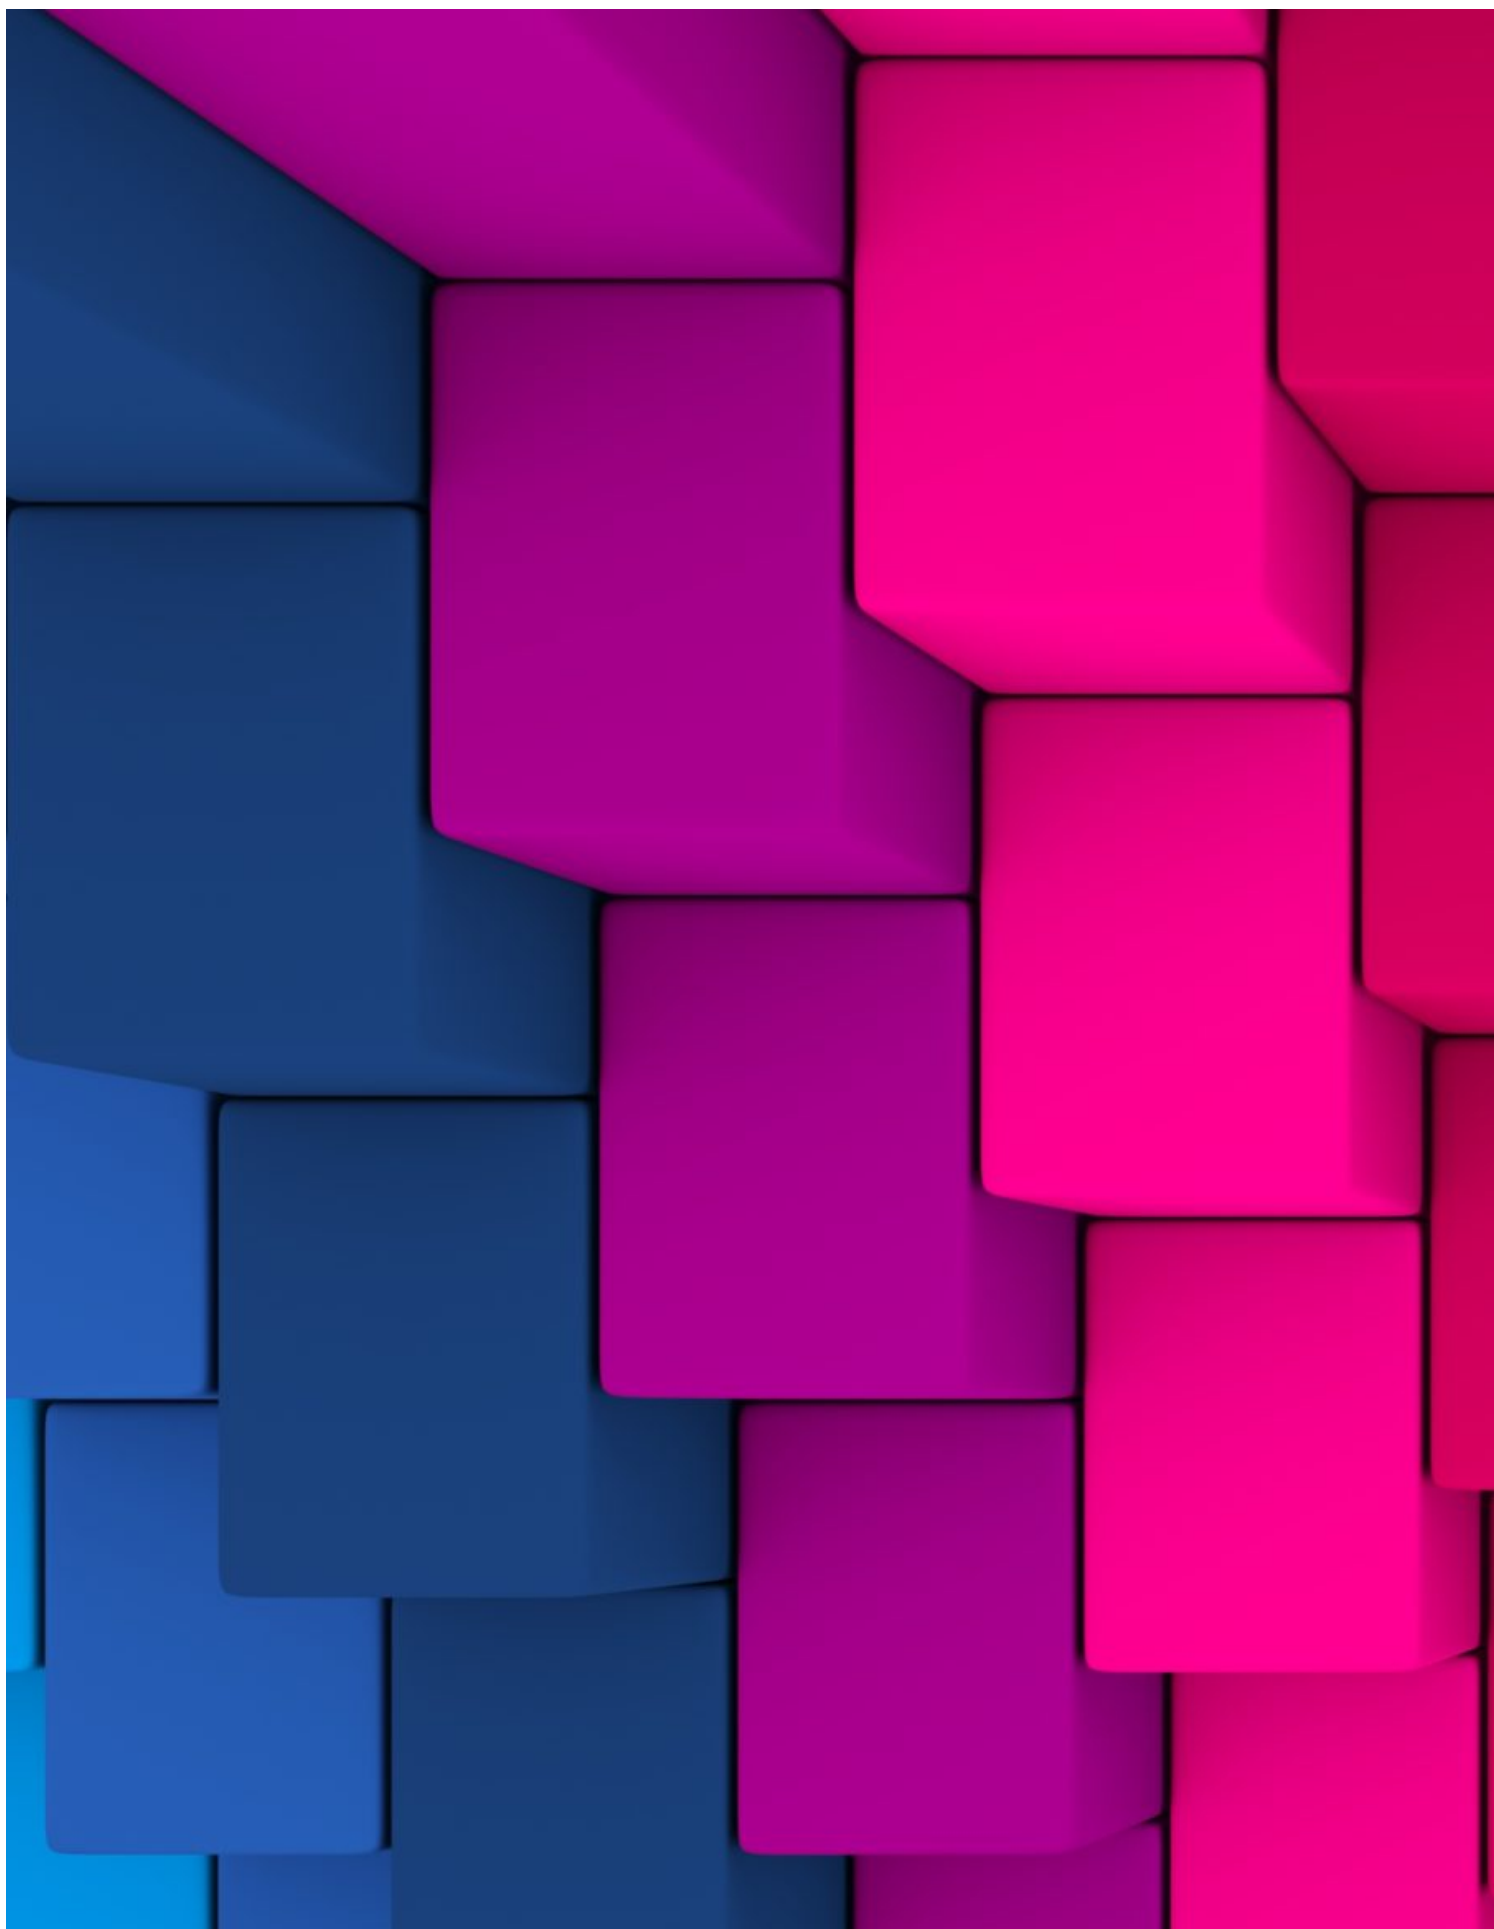

We were founded by a group of attorneys who wanted to do things differently. Five decades later, that entrepreneurial spirit remains a central tenet of our culture and our business. Instead of being bound by convention and tradition, McGlinchey attorneys stay nimble and responsive, affording us greater creativity and flexibility to help clients address their business and legal challenges.

Today, our 170 attorneys serve clients from offices in Alabama, California, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Mississippi, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, and Washington, DC. In addition, we have attorneys licensed in 34 U.S. states, districts, and territories.

We give you more – and what it means.

Clients buy legal services much differently today than even a decade ago. Multi-generational buyers want multi-generational lawyers who are focused on the same things they are – who share values and goals, and understand what shared success looks like.

Whether we have a month, a week, or a day to plan our strategy, our clients understand that our proficiency in certain industries and service areas runs so deep that the right solutions are part of our DNA. This is uniquely a McGlinchey trait – we bring passion for the subject-matter at the same time we bring efficiency to the service delivery.

We are indebted to clients that have been loyal to McGlinchey because of this and invite executives, company owners, and entrepreneurial individuals who don't yet call us "our lawyers" to give us a try. "We give you more" isn't just a spirited tagline or an aspirational claim. Here is what you can count on when you hire McGlinchey – this is what “more” really means:
