

Bank Partnership Programs and the Regulatory Response

November 20, 2017

Robert Savoie (New Orleans) published an article titled “Bank Partnership Programs and the Regulatory Response” in The Review of Banking & Financial Services, a periodic review of special legal developments affecting lending and other financial institutions. The article analyzes the various structures being used on the federal and state level to regulate bank partnership programs.

Related people

Robert W. Savoie