

Baton Rouge Office Named One of City's "Best Places to Work" 2016

October 07, 2016

McGlinchey Stafford's Baton Rouge office has once again been named to the annual list of "Best Places to Work" in Baton Rouge. McGlinchey Stafford was ranked seventh out of 20 large companies with 250 or more U.S. employees.

This year's list was compiled following independent research from the Best Companies Group, which surveyed companies that chose to participate. Best Companies Group analyzed and ranked participating companies on eight core focus areas: leadership and planning; corporate culture and communications; role satisfaction; work environment; relationship with supervisor; training, development, and resources; pay and benefits; and overall engagement.

A complete list of companies mentioned in this year's list was published in a special section in the September 27 issue of the Greater Baton Rouge Business Report, and honorees were recognized at a special breakfast September 28. For more information, visit www.bestplacetoworkbr.com.
