

Bring Your Own Policy (BYOP) Breakfast 3.0 – Investigations: Who and Why? New Orleans

March 23, 2018

McGlinchey Stafford

601 Poydras Street, Suite 1200
New Orleans, LA 70130

McGlinchey Stafford's Labor & Employment Law Team presents

Bring Your Own Policy (BYOP) Breakfast 3.0 – Investigations: Who and Why?

Friday, March 23, 2018

8:15 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

Do you know the potential legal pitfalls of conducting an employee investigation? Beware — strategic decisions you make regarding investigations may affect the legal risks faced by your company. Attorney-client privilege, Upjohn warnings, federal and state agency cooperation, and other legal considerations should be part of your investigation plan.

Join McGlinchey Stafford attorneys Dan Plunkett and Mag Bickford for a thoughtful discussion about planning and conducting investigations that are mindful of civil and criminal legal issues. Dan and Mag will explain how to stay on the right side of the law. In addition, they will share practical pointers to help you achieve the best possible outcome for your organization, including preserving evidence and post-investigation strategies.

Complimentary continental breakfast will be served. This program is open to McGlinchey Stafford clients and prospective clients. There is no cost to attend. HRCI credit is pending.

Related people

Magdalen Blessey Bickford

Daniel T. Plunkett