

Current Issues in Auto Finance: Driving Through Developments in Litigation and Enforcement

March 30, 2019

ABA Business Law Section Spring Meeting

Vancouver, BC Kelly Lipinski (Cleveland) will moderate “Current Issues in Auto Finance: Driving Through Developments in Litigation and Enforcement” during the ABA Business Law Section Spring Meeting on March 30, 2019. The program will provide an overview of notable state and federal developments in the auto finance industry. To do so the speakers will explore legal issues that have been the subject of recent litigation and enforcement actions. Topics will include recovery of post-default interest, enforcement of security interests, and repossession communications.

Related people

Kelly Lipinski