

Deep Dive into Payments Clients-Only CLE

August 16, 2023

The final installment in McGlinchey's Deep Dive Series covering all things payments is a client-only CLE webinar featuring attorneys from McGlinchey's Financial Institutions Compliance team.

This discussion will include a review of emerging issues in payments, including innovations in the payments environment and developing payments applications, as well as an exploration of issues ranging from error resolution responsibilities, money movement, and challenges entering the payment networks. What are the potential triggers for becoming a money transmitter, as well as the associated costs and possible alternatives? We will also offer a rundown on bank partnership relationship structures and the issues that affect them in the payments space. Join McGlinchey attorneys to discuss best practices and tips around customer experience and legal and regulatory risks in this exciting space.

Tuesday, October 3, 2023

10 am PT / 12 pm CT / 1 pm ET

This CLE is only open to McGlinchey clients. Please register by September 1, 2023, for the best chance of being able to certify this program for CLE in the state(s) you request.
