

Deirdre C. McGlinchey Honored in 2022 Irish Legal 100

December 29, 2022

International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) shared that member Deirdre McGlinchey was honored as part of 2022 Irish Legal 100. Deirdre, a dual citizen of the United States and Ireland, was previously named to the Irish Legal 100 in 2016, making this her second time to receive the honor. She has been involved with numerous Irish American organizations, including the Irish American Business Chamber & Network, Irish American Cultural Institute, American Irish Historical Society, and Irish Network New Orleans. The Irish Legal 100 was founded in 2008 by the Irish Voice newspaper in New York. The annual compilation highlights the most distinguished legal professionals in the United States who share one common bond: pride in their Irish roots.
