

Deirdre McGlinchey Invited to Join the Louisiana Chapter of the International Women's Forum

December 13, 2021

McGlinchey Stafford is proud to announce that Deirdre McGlinchey has been inducted into the Louisiana Chapter of the International Women's Forum (IWF). The induction took place at the IWF's Annual Meeting and Dinner at the New Orleans Museum of Art on November 30.

Deirdre is a trial lawyer who often represents large manufacturers in products liability cases and has successfully defended clients in individual claims, class actions, and multidistrict litigation. She has handled matters involving construction, mining, and agricultural equipment; diesel and natural gas engines; industrial turbines; automotive design; marine propulsion systems; toxic torts; and medical devices. She has tried cases in state and federal courts throughout the country.

The International Women's Forum is an invitation-only network of women leaders across every professional sector. It connects women all over the world with the common mission of advancing women's leadership and championing equality. The IWF builds relationships across countries between C-level women of all career paths, from inventors and entrepreneurs to astronauts and Olympic athletes. The organization was established in New York City in 1974 and includes more than 7,500 members from 33 countries.

Related people

Deirdre C. McGlinchey