

Discovering NFTs: What Your Company Needs to Know About NFTs in 2023

November 29, 2023

The legal landscape around NFTs is constantly evolving, and the rapid evolution of blockchain technology can have a direct impact on businesses and legal issues.

Member Marshall Grodner (Baton Rouge) will co-present “Discovering NFTs: What Your Company Needs to Know About NFTs in 2023,” a Practising Law Institute (PLI) Webinar on December 11, 2023. After completing this program, participants will be able to understand how NFTS are used in business transactions, including using NFTs as collateral, perfecting security interests in NFTs, and valuation. Speakers will outline how federal and state tax laws and regulations apply to NFTS. There will be a discussion of business strategies in connection with NFTs that could be advantageous from a tax point of view.
