

Ethical and Professionalism Dilemmas in the Transactional Context: Can You Do It and Should You Do It?

September 13, 2022

The Model Rules of Professional Conduct were drafted mainly for litigation, but how do those rules apply in a transactional context? Member Marshall Grodner (Baton Rouge) will moderate a panel of attorneys, including Member Kristi W. Richard (Baton Rouge), during the American Bar Association (ABA) Business Law Hybrid Section Annual Meeting on Friday, September 16, 2022. The panel will discuss not only what lawyers can do as a matter of the rules themselves, but also what lawyers should do when presented with certain ethical and professional dilemmas, particularly in the transactional setting.
