

Ethics – Potential Pitfalls of Internal Investigations

March 15, 2024

Tulane is acknowledged around the world as a leader in the admiralty field. Every other spring, hundreds of lawyers, both practicing and academic, converge on the Tulane campus for the three-day Admiralty Law Institute, the oldest (since 1965) and largest continuing legal education program devoted to maritime law. This year's working theme is "Sea Change: U.S. and International Admiralty on the Horizon."

Member Marcelle Mouldoux (New Orleans) will join a panel presentation, "Ethics – Potential Pitfalls of Internal Investigations," at Tulane's 30th Biennial Admiralty Law Institute on March 22, 2024. Dive into a nuanced overview of internal investigations and potential ethical dilemmas.
