

Getting to Know FedNow, Now

April 11, 2024

The Federal Reserve's FedNow Service launched ahead of schedule in 2023. It has already been successfully implemented and is expanding faster than predicted.

Member Aaron Kouhought (Cleveland) will lead a panel presentation, "Getting to Know FedNow, Now," on April 22, 2024, as part of the American Fintech Council (AFC)'s Future of Finance Webinar series. Join the webinar to explore FedNow's features and use cases and gain valuable insight and perspective to prepare you to navigate the future of instant payments.
