

Happy Mardi Gras

February 25, 2020

The Carnival season leading up to Mardi Gras, or “Fat Tuesday,” is a weeks-long celebration of our culture, including music, food, parades, and pageantry.

Although our firm has expanded across the nation over the years, we remain rooted in the traditions and celebrations of our founding city of New Orleans.

As we like to say, laissez les bons temps rouler, or let the good times roll!
