

Hybrid Working Lessons Learned: Continue the Conversation

November 08, 2021

On Friday, October 15, 2021, Jessica VanTroost, Strategic Operations Administrator, facilitated an Association of Legal Administrators (ALA) Roundtable on lessons learned about hybrid working during Covid. The discussion was so good that the organizers decided to host another session to continue the conversation! Jessica will moderate a follow-up panel on Friday, November 19, 2021.

ALA Roundtables are virtual, member-centered discussions providing a forum for members to share knowledge and best practices in our rapidly changing environment. They focus on topics of current impact, predetermined and driven by member needs and supported by facilitator input.
