

LSBA Honors Mary Joseph with Crystal Gavel Award

September 21, 2009

McGlinchey Stafford PLLC attorney Mary Joseph was recently honored by the Louisiana State Bar Association (LSBA) when she received the 2009 Crystal Gavel Award. The LSBA instituted the Crystal Gavel Awards in 2001 to recognize outstanding lawyers and judges who have been unsung heroes and heroines in their communities. Mary's volunteer and civic activities have touched numerous people in the Baton Rouge area for many years as she has given and continues to give generously of her time and talents to support the arts, education and the less fortunate. Mary's significant contributions over the past 40 years to the Baton Rouge community set an incredible standard by which to judge volunteerism and she continues to volunteer her leadership skills for the greater good.

Related people

Mary Terrell Joseph