

Manufactured Housing Law Update – March 2019

March 31, 2019

Manufactured Housing Law Update

McGlinchey Stafford and the Manufactured Housing Institute (MHI) are pleased to bring you the Manufactured Housing Law Update. With content prepared by McGlinchey Stafford's nationally-recognized consumer financial services team, the Update focuses on legal and regulatory actions in the manufactured housing industry.

Welcome to the March 2019 Manufactured Housing Law Update. We hope you are enjoying Spring.

Items of interest this month include the U.S. Supreme Court holding that a firm pursuing a non-judicial foreclosure is not a debt collector under the FDCPA.

In addition, Montana amended its mortgage licensing law, which will make it more onerous for lenders and servicers to obtain and maintain licenses. In addition, the changes to the law give authority to the regulator to examine service providers of licensees.

There are also a few bankruptcy decisions that industry may find interesting.

These items and more, so read on.

Read the full update here.

Related people

Jeffrey Barringer

Marc J. Lifset