Mary Joseph will reign as Queen Lollapalooza at the Arts Council of Baton Rouge's 10th Annual Lollapalooza, a fun event that celebrates the arts in Baton Rouge with lively bands, entertainment, great food and spirits and a silent auction. Each year, the Arts Council selects a community and/or cultural leader who has demonstrated strong support for the arts to be honored as Lollapalooza royalty. This year, Mary will be honored for her commitment to the arts in Baton Rouge. The event will be held on Friday, January 8, 2010.
