October 30, 2023

Members of McGlinchey's Financial Institutions Compliance team authored and co-authored several chapters in the latest edition of the American Bar Association (ABA)'s The Law of Truth in Lending. This resource for business lawyers and corporate and financial service executives provides updated, comprehensive coverage of Truth in Lending law compliance, disclosure, and private enforcement. In addition, Member Lynette Hotchkiss (Nashville) co-edited the publication.

McGlinchey lawyers authored or co-authored the following chapters:

- Chapter 5: Closed-End Disclosures – Rachael Aspery, Taylor Bennington, Jason Bichsel, Brian Fink, Lynette Hotchkiss, Kelly Lipinski, retired partner Arthur Rotatori, and Robert Savoie
- Chapter 6: Transactions Involving Real Estate and Dwellings – Lynette Hotchkiss
- Chapter 13: Relation to Other Law – Marc J. Lifset

This comprehensive, single volume provides a detailed analysis of all aspects of the Truth in Lending Act and is updated to be accessible and useful for today's practitioners. Drafted by practice leaders, this fourth edition contains timely information and expert guidance explaining the scope of the Act and the issues to be considered when dealing with matters of TIL compliance, disclosure, and private litigation. Beginning with a chronological and legislative history of TIL, the resource contains interpretive guidance and extensive reference to the Official Interpretations and litigation developments throughout to help decipher the intricacies of this area of the law.
