

McGlinchey Names Shaun Ramey Financial Services Litigation Group Co-Chair

March 21, 2023

McGlinchey Stafford is pleased to announce that it has named attorney Shaun Ramey co-chair of the firm's national Financial Services Litigation (FSL) practice group. McGlinchey has been recognized as an industry leader and go-to firm in the FSL space for over forty years, and Shaun has represented scores of financial services providers in their litigation matters nationwide for almost 25 years. Shaun also serves as managing member of the firm's Nashville office and on McGlinchey's executive Policy Committee.

"I am excited to welcome Shaun as co-chair as we work closely with our practice group's 12 team leaders to strategically guide our large and growing financial services litigation group," said Anthony Rollo, long-time chair of the practice group. "An accomplished attorney and a dynamic leader, Shaun has demonstrated his vision for positioning McGlinchey to anticipate the future needs of our clients and the industry."

With decades of experience as a trial lawyer and trusted advisor, Shaun represents financial services providers, mortgage loan servicers, banks, auto finance companies, manufactured housing lenders, and real estate entities in all types of financial services litigation. He also advises clients in litigation and transactional matters in other industries including insurance, publishing, shipping, and music. Shaun joined McGlinchey in 2018 and is licensed in Alabama, Florida, and Tennessee. As one of 10 members of the Policy Committee, Shaun also helps shape the firm's long-term, strategic growth plans.

"Shaun is a skilled advocate and innovative problem-solver with an established track record of providing not only exceptional service to clients, but also visionary, supportive guidance to his fellow attorneys," said managing member Michael Ferachi. "The financial services litigation group is our largest practice, and Shaun's collaborative, positive approach is important as we engage the next generation of leadership at McGlinchey."

The FSL group, with 65 attorneys spanning 15 of McGlinchey's 17 offices in 11 states plus Washington, DC who are licensed in 25 states, is the firm's largest practice group. Since the beginning of 2022, the group has made 15 new attorney hires in 11 offices. The team's attorneys are recognized nationally as industry authorities, from Chambers USA to Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers honors. Their collective experience includes federal and state regulatory and enforcement proceedings, hundreds of class actions in state, federal, and bankruptcy courts, and tens of thousands of consumer litigation matters. The group represents every type of financial services company, including national and state-chartered banks, finance companies, mortgage lenders and servicers, credit card issuers, automobile lenders, student lenders, community banks, thrifts, credit unions, and insurance providers.

"It is my honor to serve in this important role as McGlinchey continues to expand its client base in the FSL space," Shaun said. "I'm passionate about our people, our ability to exceed clients' expectations, and our practice group's exciting future. I look forward to working with Anthony and our other FSL Team Leaders to lead and expand our national practice and continue to provide excellent service to our clients while creatively addressing their legal challenges."
