

McGlinchey Stafford Attorneys Beauchamp and Bickford Selected to New Orleans CityBusiness' Leadership in Law 2017

February 22, 2017

McGlinchey News Release

McGlinchey Stafford PLLC is pleased to announce J. Patrick Beauchamp and Magdalen Blessey Bickford have been named to New Orleans CityBusiness' 2017 Leadership in Law class.

Beauchamp, a Member in the firm's New Orleans office, practices in the areas of real estate, asset finance, and municipal finance. He has more than 30 years of experience in real estate acquisitions and financings of commercial properties and maritime and energy assets and also represents community development districts and economic development districts in connection with real estate development and infrastructure finance, and advises institutional clients on municipal finance matters including new market tax credit transactions. He received his J.D. from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law in 1973 and his B.A. in English from Loyola University New Orleans in 1970.

Bickford, Of Counsel in the firm's New Orleans office, represents management and employers in labor and employment litigation. She also consults employers on best practices in the workplace, provides guidance on policy and procedure drafting and implementation, provides management training and education, and provides other general legal counsel. She received her J.D. from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law in 1986 and her B.A., cum laude, from Loyola University New Orleans in 1983.

CityBusiness has featured 50 area attorneys, court-associated professionals, and educators in the legal field in its annual Leadership in Law list since 2005. The honor recognizes area professionals in the field for their career and community accomplishments.

A special section with this year's honorees will be placed in the May 26 issue of CityBusiness. This year's class will be honored at a reception at the New Orleans Museum of Art, May 22 from 5:00 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

Related people

Magdalen Blessey Bickford

J. Patrick Beauchamp