

McGlinchey Stafford Attorneys Matt Manning and Emily Stroope Named to Texas Super Lawyers “Rising Stars” 2018

March 13, 2018

McGlinchey News Release

McGlinchey Stafford PLLC is pleased to announce that Matt Manning and Emily Stroope have been named to the 2018 edition of Texas Super Lawyers “Rising Stars.” They join more than 60 McGlinchey Stafford attorneys who have received the distinction of being included in Super Lawyers and the publication’s “Rising Stars” lists across the United States.

Manning is an Associate who practices primarily in the areas of commercial and consumer financial litigation and creditor’s rights in bankruptcy. He frequently represents banks and mortgage loan servicers in the litigation of suits in both state and federal courts. He received his J.D. from St. Mary’s University School of Law in 2009 and his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Houston in 2006.

Stroope is a Member whose practice is focused on mortgage lending litigation and consumer financial services litigation for lenders, mortgage servicers, banks, and other financial institutions. She regularly handles real estate title contests and contract disputes. She received her J.D. from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law in 2009 and her B.A., cum laude, from Southern Methodist University in 2006.

Super Lawyers has listed outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement since the publication’s founding in 1991. To be included in a state publication, lawyers are subject to a nomination process, a peer-review survey by practice area, and independent research on candidates. The top five percent of attorneys in each state, as nominated by their peers, are then reviewed by an independent research team that focuses on professional accomplishments, peer recognition, and community involvement.
