

McGlinchey Stafford Honors Louisiana's African American Judiciary

July 23, 2012

McGlinchey News Release Continuing an annual tradition that has extended more than twenty years, on Tuesday, July 17, McGlinchey Stafford co-hosted the Lionel R. Collins Dinner to honor Louisiana's African American judiciary. More than 30 guests attended the event, including judges, lawyers and their guests. The event was held at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, in conjunction with the National Bar Association's annual meeting.