

McGlinchey Stafford Litigator To Helm Fort Lauderdale Office

April 04, 2024

Member Kerry Cummings (Fort Lauderdale) was interviewed by LAW360 Pulse on being selected as Managing Member of McGlinchey's Fort Lauderdale Office.

Kerry Ann Cummings was elevated to member in January, and on Tuesday the firm announced that she has taken the reins of the Fort Lauderdale shop, which boasts a roster of eight attorneys. McGlinchey Stafford also has attorneys throughout South Florida who work remotely, the firm said.

Cummings told Law360 Pulse on Thursday in an interview that the Fort Lauderdale office is in "growth mode" and that she is actively hiring attorneys in any practice area that fits with McGlinchey Stafford's full-service business platform.

"Our arms are open wide," Cummings said. "My other priority is maintaining this lovely and beautiful family we have here in Fort Lauderdale."

Cummings said the lawyers who work remotely often spend time working in the office and said the entire group gets together for lunch at least once a month.
