August 17, 2017

McGlinchey News Release

McGlinchey Stafford is included in the National Law Journal's NLJ 500, a ranking of the nation's law firms by size, climbing four spots to 205th on the list. To compile its list, the National Law Journal surveyed more than 500 firms for lawyer totals based on the average number of full-time equivalent attorneys for the 2016 calendar year. Survey headcounts do not include firms' contract or temporary attorneys. Firms included in the list must have more lawyers based in the United States than in any other single country to be included.

Additionally, the firm has been included once again in the annual Law360 400, the publication's annual ranking of the largest U.S. law firms. The list, based on domestic attorney headcount as of December 31, 2016, includes only U.S.-based law firms and vereins with a U.S. component. McGlinchey Stafford is listed as the 210th-largest law firm in the nation, a change from 207th on the list last year.
