

McGlinchey Stafford's Commercial Litigation Group Adds John Nader in Washington, DC

June 14, 2017

McGlinchey News Release

McGlinchey Stafford PLLC is pleased to announce the addition of experienced litigator John Nader to the firm's Washington, DC office. John joins the firm's Commercial Litigation and Consumer Financial Services Litigation groups as Of Counsel.

John represents financial institutions and servicers in mortgage- and consumer lending-based financial services litigation in state and federal courts, with a particular focus on mortgage lending and related commercial disputes. He advises clients on all aspects of complying with state and federal banking, foreclosure, and consumer protection laws, including the Dodd-Frank Act, Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), and Regulations X and Z.

John also has experience in construction litigation and has represented large general contractors, developers, and owners in construction matters and related commercial disputes. He received his J.D. from The Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law in 2006 and his B.A. from the University of Virginia in 2002.

"John is a welcome addition to our nationwide Commercial Litigation team. His experience with consumer financial services statutes and his perspective as former inside counsel will allow us to more effectively serve banks, loan servicers, and other financial services industry clients across the United States," said Rudy Aguilar, Managing Member of McGlinchey Stafford.

In addition to his private practice experience, John has served as chief legal counsel for an SBA 8(a) general contractor specializing in government construction, renovation, design/build, and perimeter defense work.

McGlinchey Stafford's Washington, DC attorneys serve clients in the areas of financial services compliance and commercial litigation and represent corporations, governmental entities, and individuals in government investigations by agencies such as the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), and Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and investigations by legislative branch bodies or committees of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate.

Related people

John A. Nader

Rudy Aguilar