

Spoliation sanctions ordered in unpaid commissions case

July 25, 2023

Boston Member Patrick T. Voke was quoted in a Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly article on spoliation sanctions ordered in an unpaid commissions case on Tuesday, July 25, 2023.

Patrick T. Voke of Boston said the case highlights the level of discretion a judge has in matters.

"In this particular case, the judge could have dismissed the claims in their entirety and likely would have been within her rights to do so," he said, adding that it was also noteworthy that Lenovo did not have to prove there were documents that were actually destroyed or not produced; it only had to show it could not make such a determination.

Read the full article here.

Related people

Patrick T. Voke