

The Legislative Landscape – What’s in Store for Higher Education Lending?

September 27, 2018

Credit Union Student Choice Empower U Conference

Nashville, TN Member Kelly Lipinski (Cleveland) will co-present “The Legislative Landscape – What’s in Store for Higher Education Lending?” on September 27, 2018 at the Credit Union Student Choice Empower U conference in Nashville, Tennessee. The presentation will provide an insider’s perspective on the latest happenings from both D.C. and state governments across the country, and what impact they may have on higher education lending. Empower U is the first and only learning event in the credit union space to focus on education finance.

Related people

Kelly Lipinski