

What I've Learned with Rudy Aguilar

September 02, 2022

Baton Rouge Member Rudy Aguilar was featured in the September/October 2022 issue of the Baton Rouge Lawyer, the magazine of the Baton Rouge Bar Association. Rudy, who practices corporate, transactional, and insurance regulatory law, was interviewed for a piece entitled “What I’ve Learned,” in which he fielded a variety of questions about his background, career path, interests and hobbies, and advice he would offer to others.

Growing up I always wanted to be a businessman.

The best advice I ever got: You don't have to respond to every question immediately, and it's ok to say you don't know.

The best advice I ever gave was: Take your time, trust your gut and make the best decision you can.

I'd like to be 26 again because—actually, I'd rather not. My 26-year-old self did pretty well and took the right forks in the road. I don't want to chance a wrong turn.
