

Savoie and Greenwood-Field to Present at the 2024 NMLS Conference

January 31, 2024

Members of the Financial Institutions Compliance team will participate in multiple sessions during the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System (NMLS) Conference in San Antonio, Texas.

Member Amy Greenwood-Field will join the February 15th panel, “How to Reach a Win-Win: NMLS Best Practices.” Learn what it takes to keep agency licensing staff and the company users they license happy! Guest speakers from all sides of the licensing process will share their perspectives and recommendations for creating a strong agency and company relationship. Amy will also present at the NMLS Ombudsman Meeting on February 15, which is an opportunity for industry users to raise issues concerning the use and policies of NMLS and collaboratively discuss these issues in person with state regulators in an open environment.

Member Robert Savoie (Cleveland) will join the panel “You’ve Asked, We’ve Listened, and Our Doors are Still Open with Industry Development Working Group (IDWG)” on February 15, 2024. Join IDWG members and learn about the work they do for you. Come hear about their successes and take this opportunity to provide feedback, and let them ask you, “What’s next?”
