

Consumer Finance Team Builds Online Database for Mortgage Lender

October 15, 2012

For a national mortgage lender, our consumer financial services team supports compliance with the SAFE Act and the Dodd-Frank Consumer Protection Act throughout the country. By building an online database, our team is able to manage legal research and operational implementation. The database captures all requirements for obtaining and maintaining sales finance company, personal loan, mortgage banking and debt collector licensing.