

Government

January 26, 2017

Mike Rubin is regularly retained by governmental agencies in connection with major constitutional and educational matters affecting the state. He has successfully handled matters concerning the constitutional financing of education in Louisiana, the ability of the Louisiana Supreme Court to pass rules and regulations affecting the practice of law, and litigation that sought to undermine state statutes and contracts relating to gaming.