

Lead Counsel in a complex public-private partnership transaction

August 06, 2018

McGlinchey Stafford represented a client in a complex public-private partnership transaction, including the development of a resort in Mississippi, that involved tax credits, governmental economic development incentives and guarantees, hotel franchise agreements, and more.