

Representation of National Bank in Consumer Protection and Antitrust Litigation

February 11, 2013

Representing national bank and subsidiary in consumer protection and antitrust litigation brought by state attorney general for alleged abusive practices resulting in unnecessary fees charged to consumer credit card holders.