

Represented a national auto lender in a wide-ranging CFPB investigation into all aspects of the company's business practices and compliance management.

April 06, 2016

The investigation included multiple Civil Investigative Demands issued to the company and a lending subsidiary, and two investigative hearings, some of the few the agency has conducted. Negotiated a consent decree on behalf of the lender after multiple conferences and meetings with the CFPB.