

Represented an automobile dealership in a putative class Truth in Lending suit

February 23, 2017

Represented an automobile dealership in a putative class Truth in Lending suit involving allegations of finance charge and itemization of finance charge violations in retail installment contracts. The case was won on summary judgment.