

Represented an equity investor and mortgage lender in a suit relating to low-income housing in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Tennessee

February 23, 2017

Represented an equity investor and mortgage lender in a suit for preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and for damages filed by the plaintiffs, developers of federally-supported low-income housing in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Tennessee. The court denied the preliminary injunction which sought to prevent the client from exercising its rights on 12 projects. The remainder of the case settled.
