

Represented FinTech company in $100 million commercial loan transaction

August 06, 2018

McGlinchey Stafford represented a financial technology company based in Colorado in the structure and negotiation of a loan purchase agreement, requested opinions to certain opinion parties and the closing of the transaction on an expedited schedule to coincide with the closing of an additional capital raise.