

Successfully mediated $2.5 million dollar shareholder derivative lawsuit against limited liability company.

March 05, 2020

Represented both the LLC and its owner-members in a shareholder derivative suit challenging various changes to the corporate structure and make-up of the board of directors, ultimately resolving the case after extensive discovery and mediation practice.