

Alyssa Weiss

associate

fort lauderdale

aweiss@mcglinchey.com

T (954) 356-2509

Legal Assistant

Andy Lozada

alozada@mcglinchey.com

(954) 356-2473

education

University of Florida (J.D., 2021, cum laude)

- CALI Excellence for the Future Award for Trial Practice; Editor, Journal of Law and Public Policy; Teaching Assistant, Legal Writing; Teaching Assistant, Appellate Advocacy; Levin Ambassador; President, The Florida Student Brief; Member, Jewish Legal Student Association; Member, Law Association for Women

University of Florida (B.S., Journalism, 2018, magna cum laude)

- UF Journalism and Communications Study Abroad, Barcelona, Spain, May 2015

admissions

Florida

U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida

U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida

affiliations

- American Bar Association

While I draw heavily upon my legal and strategic acumen, I also rely on my journalism training to deliver high-quality client service. My immediate instinct is to keep asking questions, often reframing the same question in different ways, to get the answers I need and understand the many angles comprising a matter. This approach to inquiry paired with the extensive research I conduct enhance my ability to serve clients.

Alyssa Weiss brings a wide range of skills to her commercial litigation practice, including the ability to distill complex legal concepts into clear, concise language. For clients based in Florida those and with a national presence, she finds it highly gratifying to help solve their problems, boost their businesses, reduce their stress, and make their lives easier.

With a background in commercial, probate, and guardianship litigation matters, Alyssa's experience includes drafting pleadings and motions to file in state and federal court, writing response briefs to opposing counsels' motions, and assisting with document review and drafting discovery. She also helps

- Broward County Women Lawyers' Association
- Florida Association for Women Lawyers

set up new matters, reviews and analyzes case law, drafts corresponding legal memos, and works with clients to develop strategic litigation goals.

An excellent writer, Alyssa crafts persuasive arguments that are jargon-free and understandable to lawyers and non-lawyers alike. She also keeps an eye out for wording in documents that could cause problems for clients down the road and addresses those potential issues. In all legal pursuits, Alyssa tackles challenges with persistence, tenacity, and a strong determination to forge practical, efficient resolutions that match clients' objectives.

As a first-generation college and law school graduate, Alyssa cares deeply about connecting with young law students from similar family backgrounds and making sure they have the resources they need to succeed.

published articles

"Eleventh Circuit Confirms Creditor Conducted Reasonable Investigation into Dispute Involving Identity Theft," ABA Business Law Today, June Month-In-Brief: Business Regulation & Regulated Industries, July 3, 2023

"CFPB Loses Novel Redlining Case Against Non-Bank Mortgage Lender," ABA Business Law Today, February Month-In-Brief: Business Regulation & Regulated Industries, March 1, 2023

"Third Circuit Rules the FCRA Waives U.S. Sovereign Immunity," ABA Business Law Today, September Month-In-Brief: Business Regulation & Regulated Industries, October 6, 2022

"Credit Reporting Agency Sued for FCRA Violation Based on Alleged Inaccurate Reporting of Mortgage Delinquency During COVID-19 Forbearance," ABA Business Law Today, April Month-In-Brief: Business Regulation & Regulated Industries, April 2022