McGlinchey's culture, particularly the licensing team and financial services compliance group's strong work ethic and positive attitude, drew me to the firm. People make a significant impact at a job, and working with professionals I respect and enjoy makes all the difference.

Julie Jablonowski* coordinates state licensing projects for multiple FinTech industry clients. She manages licensing application submissions, tracking deadlines across states with various renewal periods and requirements, along with special client projects for license maintenance. Julie engages with clients and regulators to execute successful projects and build productive relationships for ongoing and future licensing matters.

Having worked in a wide variety of roles in diverse industries affords Julie a unique and robust skill set that is highly adaptable to many work environments and demands. She can turn on a dime when a new licensing project comes in or when a client decides to move in a different direction. Her varied experience gives Julie an empathetic, diplomatic approach that equips her to work well with a wide variety of clients and colleagues.

In addition to consumer banking and finance licensing, Julie has also worked in corporate finance, Medicare and Medicaid licensing, corporate healthcare compliance, medical equipment, and bookkeeping/payroll. These positions spanned the construction, manufacturing, sports management, and sales industries. Julie is also a Paralegal with experience in estate planning, succession planning, and corporate formation and records maintenance.
